

SANITARIUM AT BURR SPRINGS

Party of Chicago Capitalists Visit the Lithia Water Resort.

THINK WELL OF IT

Among the Visitors Are Two Good Architects and a U. S. Congressman.

MONEY IS IN SIGHT

F. J. Tucker of Chicago, one of the chief promoters of the Burr Lithia Springs company and twelve prominent Chicago business men arrived in the city today at 11:47 in a special car attached to the Badger State express on the Chicago & Northwestern railroad for the purpose of inspecting the property on which the promoters now hold options.

It was expected that about thirty business men would make the trip and about that many had made arrangements yesterday to leave this morning. The unsettled condition of the markets caused a number of those who proposed to make the trip to stay at home. Their interests on 'Change were such that it was impossible for them to get away. They will make the trip to this city a week from today and will stay over Sunday.

Architects to Prepare Plans.
Henry W. Hill and Arthur Wollersdorf, the architects who accompany the party, will look over the property and on their return will prepare plans for the sanitarium and bottling establishment.

J. L. Ferguson, assistant general passenger agent of the Northwestern road, accompanied the party to this city and will look over the ground with a view of recommending the location of a station at the grounds. It is the intention of the Springs company in case the sanitarium and bottling works are built to ask the railroad company to erect a station and put a siding on the property.

Plan Bridge Across the River.
The company are also figuring in putting in a bridge across the river near the old Dolson's dam to connect the grounds with the west side of the river which would shorten the drive from the city to the grounds about three miles. The doctors who visited the springs on Thursday are all loud in their praises of the water and their written endorsement will be in the hands of the promoters early next week.

There can be no question as to the outcome of the enterprise as the men back of it are wealthy and first-class business men. There is no question but that the water is the best in the world and all that it needs is a little push and energy to make it the leading table and medical water of the country.

The development of the springs will not only be a good thing for the company but a good thing for Janesville. The advertisement given the water will advertise the city and make it known all over the country.

The party were met at the train this morning by a number of the leading merchants of the city and escorted to the Myers house where dinner was served to the party. At 1:30 o'clock they took the steamer and made the trip to the grounds. They will return in time to take the 7:10 train for Chicago.

ENDOWMENT BANK FULL OF FRAUDS

It Is Believed That the Pythian Branch Was Honeycombed with Swindling Schemes.

Chicago, Ill., July 13.—Insurance frauds which may bring out tragedies to rival the death of Marie Defenbach and organized bands of swindlers as large as that led by Dr. Regent are to be the next object of investigation by the present administrative officers of the Endowment Bank of the Knights of Pythias.

Men who borrowed money of the bank and made false entries to conceal it, who gave themselves credit for funds they owed without taking the trouble to pay, who abstracted the regular sums from the special funds without any reasonable explanation to offer of their right to do it may have been implicated in other methods of securing money, so the present officials argue, and as soon as they have taken into the courts the information they now possess they will pry into this new field. For the present no criminal actions based on the office irregularities already known will be begun, but civil prosecutions and trials in the Pythian tribunals will soon be under way. The board of control has instructed General Counsel Hardy to proceed on the lines ordered by the supreme lodge as "speedily as possible."

ROB A FORTUNE IN DAYLIGHT

Thieves Take $1,000 from a Farmer, Leaving Him Penniless.

La Crosse, Wis., July 13.—Bold daylight robbery was committed on the farm of Conrad Elgert yesterday. He resides a few miles north of here. Elgert was working in a field a short distance from the house, but owing to his extreme age his sight and hearing have been impaired.

When he went to his house he found that the trunk containing his money had been broken into and that nearly $1,000 in gold had been stolen. He has been very saving and has accumulated a large fortune but through several unusual unfortunate investments all but the $1,000 was lost. A part of this fortune was found buried on the farm and was stolen, while another large amount was lost in a financial disaster. With the theft of the balance he is left penniless.

OLD ISSUES MUST BE KEPT ALIVE

Bryan Will Not Yield to the Demands for Retirement of the Kansas City Platform.

St. Louis, Mo., July 13.—Country editors of Missouri who are radical Bryan men construe his remarks of yesterday in a public address and in private conversation as meaning that he will also set to work to build up a party organization in every state in the union to combat any tendency to ignore the platforms of the last two national democratic conventions.

Mr. Bryan spoke before the Missouri Press association at the Laclede hotel, after which he held an informal levee lasting throughout the afternoon.

Mr. Bryan attempted to avoid all discussion of the Ohio convention with the remark, "I have nothing to say at present. I will discuss that convention and its doings next week in the Commoner."

Last night in conversation with a party of personal friends at a dinner in his honor Mr. Bryan was more open in his statements. He let it be distinctly understood as an indirect comment on the Ohio situation that he proposes to fight to the bitter end every effort to force the abandonment of the Kansas City and Chicago platforms.

BULL FIGHTS RAISE WRATH OF OMAHA

Plans for a Bloody Spectacle This Afternoon Excite Violent Opposition Among People.

Omaha, Neb., July 13.—A storm of protest has been aroused against the alleged intention of the South Omaha street fair management to arrange for a regular bull fight at the afternoon performance today. The word has been passed around that a bull is to be killed for the benefit of the spectators and that a hot battle is in prospect.

P. C. Maddon, the concessioner, denies this and says that if it should happen that a bull were killed his prospects for taking his show to other exhibitions in this country would be ruined. On the other hand, it is said that the terrors will not necessarily carry out his instructions if they are properly tipped. South Omaha has been turned wide open and the mad whirl will continue until Sunday morning.

FARM LABORERS FORM A UNION

Object Is To Increase Wages—First Organization of the Kind That Has Been Formed.

Vincennes, Ind., July 13.—The farm laborers in Knox county, Ind., and Lawrence county, Ill., have organized and immediately secured an advance in wages.

William H. Brevoort & Son, who cultivate over 5,000 acres, were the first to feel the effects of the new organization, which is chartered as the "Farm Laborers' Union, No. 9,247, Vincennes, Ind., branch of the American Federation of Labor."

This is the first farmers' union ever organized in the state. Mr. Brevoort employs about 150 men.

Since the union was formed an increase has been granted the men from 90 to $1.10 for married men, and from 75 to 95 cents per day for single men. The farmers are said to be viewing with concern the outlook.

BUTTE HOTEL FIRE; SEVERAL INJURED

A Large Number of the Guests of the House Are Rescued by the Firemen.

Butte, Mont., July 13.—Fire at three o'clock this morning destroyed the Butte hotel. Several people were injured by jumping from the windows.

Gus English and John Devine sustained serious injuries and many others sustained slight injuries. The firemen rescued a large number of guests by means of ladders. The loss is one hundred thousand. The fire originated in the basement.

KANSAS CITY MOB HAS DISPERSED

Two of the Suspects Identified as Active Principals in Outrage.

IS SPIRITED AWAY

The Actual Ravisher of Miss Davis Not Yet Arrested, According to Police

OUTBREAK TONIGHT

Kansas City, Mo., July 13.—Exhausted by efforts in searching the negro quarters of the city and running to cover all the colored people they could find, the mob which last night attempted to wreak vengeance on eight negroes confined in the county jail and suspected in complicity in the assault on Miss Grace Davis on Wednesday night, early this morning dispersed.

Two of the suspects, who have been identified as active principals in the outrage, were spirited away during the night, but the authorities refuse to say where they were taken. The actual ravisher has not been arrested, or if he is under lock and key the fact is suppressed by the police in order to avoid another demonstration. It is feared that another outbreak will come tonight.

MOB RULE IN KANSAS CITY

Jail Besieged by Throng Demanding Two Negroes

Kansas City, Mo., July 13.—Mob law rules in the city, and if the rioters are not checked it is feared a double lynching is certain. One crowd surrounds the jail, where two negroes, identified as guilty of a grave crime, are confined, while 500 men in squads of seventy-five are raiding the negro quarters in the north end, chasing and beating negroes, firing off pistols, and smashing windows. Already ten blacks have been injured severely by the members of the mob, while many more narrowly escaped serious hurts. Only a leader was lacking to assure a lynching any time during the night. Fully 3,000 determined men filled the streets around the jail from 10 o'clock last night until long past midnight. They shouted for vengeance and demanded of the officials that the negroes charged with an assault on Miss Grace Davis on Wednesday night be turned over to them. It needed only one man, willing to direct them, to turn the thousands in the mob into an army of avengers. But the commander did not appear.

Police used every effort to disperse the throng, but for hours their labor was vain. Occasionally they would clear the block on which the courthouse faces, but in a moment it would be filled again with the great mob, which packed itself almost solidly in the street.

TWO FACTORIES FOR BELOIT

Bonus for Big Plow and Knitting Plants Near City Is Secured

Beloit, Wis., July 13.—Effort to sell a certain number of lots in South Beloit, to provide a bonus to secure the location there of the John Thomas & Sons' plow works and the Blake Knitting works, has proved successful and the factories will be built there in due season. South Beloit is a tract of land adjacent to the city on the south side of the Illinois state line.

Caught in Two Hurricanes.

San Francisco, July 13.—The Pacific Mail company's steamer Newport, from Panama and way ports, reports severe storms on the Central American coasts. At both Champerico and Ocos she was caught in a hurricane and had to put to sea on each occasion. Her anchor and thirty fathoms of chain were lost. A number of barges and lighters were driven ashore and other damage done at both places, but no lives were lost.

Francis Joseph Offends Italy.

Vienna, July 13.—Negotiations have been reopened for a visit of the Emperor to Italy. Franz Josef, however, is growing more clerical in his ideas and refuses to make the desired visit. It is stated that King Victor Emmanuel of Italy is greatly offended by the Emperor's refusal and will omit Vienna when he makes his visit to this country.

CAPTAIN STRONG LEAVES THE ARMY

Secretary Root Refuses to Accept Because of Scandal With Which Story Is Associated.

Washington, D. C., July 13.—Captain Putnam B. Strong of the regular army, has resigned. Secretary of War Root today refused to accept it because of Strong's ejection from a San Francisco hotel where it is alleged he had been stopping with a woman supposed to be Lady Francis Hope, an actress, and registered as man and wife, under an assumed name.

THE OBITUARY RECORD.

Maj.-Gen. P. G. Doyle.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 13.—Maj.-Gen. Peter G. Doyle, N. G. S., New York, died at Farnham, Erie county, New York, where he had been staying since his recent return from California. Gen. Doyle, besides being prominent in the National Guard of the state of New York, was well known as the general northern freight agent of the Lehigh Valley Railroad company.

President of Chile Is Dead.

Buenos Ayres, July 13.—Senor Federico Errazuriz, president of Chile, who had been in feeble health for more than a year, is dead. Senor Errazuriz was elected president of Chile June 25, 1896, for a term of five years, which began Sept. 18, 1896.

Ex-Governor Hubbard Dead.

Dallas, Texas, July 13.—Richard B. Hubbard, formerly governor of Texas and during Cleveland's administration United States Minister to Japan, is dead at his home in Tyler.

La Porte, Ind., Pioneer Dead.

La Porte, Ind., July 13.—Louis Redding, builder of the first frame house erected in La Porte, is dead. He was born at Dayton, O., 64 years ago.

Mrs. Albert Bigelow Paine.

Fort Scott, Kas., July 13.—Mrs. Albert Bigelow Paine, wife of the well-known writer, died here.

SHAFFER THREATENS A STRIKE; AN ULTIMATUM BY UNION LABOR

Notifies the Steel Magnates That Unless an Agreement is Reached Today, at Least 60,000 Men Will Be Ordered Out Monday.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 13.—T. J. Shaffer, president of the Amalgamated association this morning announced that unless the manufacturers agree to the amalgamated terms today he will order a general strike, which will paralyze the industrial world and cause consternation in all parts of the country.

The manufacturers who are attending the conference have not been notified of this decision of the Amalgamated association. When the conference opens at noon President Shaffer will make the announcement.

He denounced the action of the manufacturers and stated that they were acting as if they were asleep. The Amalgamated association's representatives held a conference last night and this was the decision reached. Thus far from the actions of all concerned, the relations have appeared most friendly. Shaffer says they are, but that he is tired of fooling, he has decided to bring things to an issue.

"This conference," said Mr. Shaffer, "has continued long enough. We reopened negotiations at the request of the manufacturers. We have been in session for two days. I will now announce that if an agreement is not reached during the day that all negotiations will be off and a general strike declared. That is all I have to say."

This morning members of the general executive board of the Amalgamated association met at their headquarters. A general air of gloom overshadowed the place and all of the labor officials looked worried. It is thought that some unfavorable turn to the discussion had taken place.

Shaffer declared that the matter would have to be concluded today or a strike would be ordered on Monday morning. The ultimatum issued by him is as follows:

"It will be impossible for the Amalgamated association to hold any further conference with the manufacturers after today. If no agreement is reached by evening, I will declare a strike and will call out every union man in the employ of the three companies involved. In addition to this there are thousands of men who are not yet organized and there will be at least 60,000 workers affected by the strike order. It must be peace or trouble, we will not compromise. A settlement must be reached today."

Fight for Nine Hours Be Continued.
Washington, D. C., July 13.—President James O'Connell of the International association of machinists, this morning said the report of the collapse of the strike was wrong and that the fight for nine hours day will be continued. He claimed sixty-five thousand machinists have won their point and fifty thousand other workers have received a shorter day by reason of the strike. "There may be a temporary settlement in places, but there will be no peace until the nine hour-day is a fact," he said. "We will take care of the ship-building plants later on and follow them up where they have refused our demands."

DROUGHT IN CORN BELT CAUSES GREAT DESTRUCTION OF CROPS

Week of Fierce Heat with No Rain, Has Inflicted Very Heavy Loss in Kansas and Other States.

ENTIRE SECTION SHREDDED BY HEAT

Even with the Best of Conditions Hereafter, the Damage Will Amount to Many Millions of Dollars—Corn Suffers the Most Severely.

A week of fierce heat and cloudless sky. A week of blasting winds and withering vegetation. A week of the worst weather conditions on record in a large part of the corn belt. And the end not yet. Under normal conditions ten days of such pitiless sunshine as has characterized those just past would seriously damage all crop growth, but when, as this year, such a period is a culmination of a much longer period of drought, the extent of the damage cannot be measured by ordinary rules.

With the exception of a small area in southwest Iowa and adjacent districts in Nebraska and Missouri, the week was practically rainless in nearly the whole of the corn belt, while the daily range of temperature was from 5 to 10 degrees above the normal. In the Northwest recent weather conditions were repeated and too much rain was experienced.

The extent to which the corn crop has been damaged since July cannot be readily measured, nor would any estimate be of value until present conditions shall be relieved. An estimate radical today is conservative, so rapid is crop destruction after the limit of crop endurance has been reached.

Cost Hundreds of Millions.

Hot winds and lack of rain have already cost the West and Southwest hundreds of millions of dollars in shriveled crops, diminished pasturage, which necessitates sacrificing vast herds of live stock at a most any price, and falling wells, which removes the last hope of relief. In Kansas alone the loss to crops, especially to corn and oats, is estimated at $200,000,000. The damage is fully as heavy as in Missouri. Iowa, owing to the very heavy soil, which contained an abnormal quantity of moisture, is in better condition and can stand the siege of drought for a week longer, although everything is deteriorating. In the immensely fertile Red River and Jim River valleys in the Northwest the customary miles upon miles of waving grain have been replaced by dull seas of shrunken, rasping, brown furze, dying of thirst and bearing no grain.

No Rain for Three Months.

At some places in Kansas there has been no rainfall whatever for nearly three months. The present drought is the worst since the year of 1860, when New England, responding to the call for help sent car loads of food to the stricken settlers on the sand swept plains. However, there is no longer a "bleeding Kansas." The farmers have been very prosperous and are armed against a year of adversity. They have just harvested the greatest winter wheat crop in the history of the state and if rain comes soon they may be able to save half a crop of corn and oats.

One remarkable feature of the long period of terrific heat is the shortage in hay. Ever since they became known on the map Kansas and Missouri have sold immense quantities of hay. When everything else failed there was hay to sell. Today Kansas farmers are paying $20 per ton for hay to feed their cattle the pastures being burned up. This is a cent a pound for hay, the highest price ever reached in western markets. Pound for pound, this is almost as much as wheat is worth.

Within five days 119,000 hogs have been received at the Kansas City stockyards, showing that the farmers have no means of feeding or watering live stock. Calves, held five days ago for $5, now find no takers at $1 each.

Missouri Heat Records Broken.

No resident of Missouri can recall a longer or a hotter period. The sirocco has swept over the state day and night for weeks, withering everything. The brazen dome of the sky gives no promise of relief. In many places work has been suspended during the day, as men and horses cannot endure the terrific heat. In central Missouri the farmers are cutting their young corn for fodder. Creeks have run dry and timber lands are beginning to suffer. Farther west there is the constant danger of timber fires. In Missouri the damage to the corn crop alone is estimated at $75,000,000. Oats and hay will not be worth the cutting, even if rain should now come.

Almost the entire length of the Missouri valley has fallen under the withering blast. Cattlemen are rushing their herds to Western Kansas, where the Buffalo grass is heavy and rank. This grass defies drought and not winds, and is the only salvation for the thousands of herds in eastern and central Kansas.

Hottest in Thirty Years.

Heat records for thirty years have been broken in St. Louis. Des Moines reports the hottest weather for twenty-three years. Nebraska has never experienced such blistering weather, and the farmers have reached the panic stage. Conservative grain men in that state, however, will not admit that the crops have been ruined. They admit that patches of corn have been cooked, but that but that rain within five days will bring everything out all right. Furnas county, bordering on the Kansas line, has lived up to its name, with twenty successive days when the mercury did not fall below 100.

The blasting weather is creeping over the great grain regions of the Northwest. North Dakota estimates its loss up to be present at 15 per cent. In South Dakota small grain, which up to yesterday was prosperous, is now limp and blighted. The tips are bleached almost white and the kernels are shriveling. In Wisconsin corn and tobacco are badly burned.

ALL INDUSTRIES ARE KEPT BUSY

Steel Mills Are Crowded with Work—Much to Indicate a Continued Flow of Prosperity.

New York, July 13.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade today says:

"General business continues its even course, with all of the leading industries well employed and with confidence expressed on every hand. Bountiful crops of wheat seem assured, and the damage to corn, while considerable in some directions, does not promise to be sufficiently general or serious to impede all the progress of the country. Labor troubles are in process of settlement, and speculators have been responsible for the most of the unrest which has been reflected in the markets."

"Steel mills are actively employed, and there is a distinct movement in the demand for finished products, while quotations are without alteration. In bars for use by makers of agricultural implements there is a brisk movement, plates are taken readily and there is no sign of diminished purchasing in structural material. Rails are ordered freely, with notable pressure for trolley and other light weights."

RACE WON BY PENN; DOWN DUBLIN CREW

Three Hundred American Visitors Are Present to Cheer the Fortunate Victors.

Killarney, Ireland, July 13.—In the boat races today between the crews of the universities of Dublin and Pennsylvania the Pennsylvania won. The way was crowded with people; fully 300 American visitors are here

AIR SHIP SAILS OVER PARIS CITY

Successful Test of Dumont's Cigar-Shaped Balloon Prior to Gain Prize of $100,000 Francs.

Paris, July 13.—Parisians of the southwestern section of the capital were surprised in the early hours of the morning to see an enormous cigar-shaped air ship sailing briskly 200 feet above the tops of their houses manipulated apparently with the same ease as an automobile on the earth's surface.

The air ship rose from the banks of the Seine near St. Cloud, described a large circle, then busily darted toward the Eiffel tower, where it suddenly sank a few minutes for repairs, then rose again and floated triumphantly over the city, finally disappearing in the smoky morning air.

This spectacular maneuver was the trial trip of Santos Dumont's new air ship, which will make its final trip tomorrow in an attempt to win the prize of 100,000 francs ($19,300) offered by Henry Deutsch, an aeronautic enthusiast, for an air ship capable of being accurately steered. Barring a slight accident to the steering gear, this morning's trial was entirely successful. The ship obeyed gracefully and promptly the hand of the young aeronaut, who occupied a small platform in front of the motor.

One objectionable peculiarity of the machine is the noise that it makes. The large fans revolve with a sound almost like successive powder explosions. Mr. Dumont, however, proposes to remedy this by a device that he is unwilling to describe at present.

J. H. Lanphier lost a very valuable shepherd dog yesterday from being over fed on fresh meat and exposure to the heat.

Just Between Ourselves

She was very nervous. She fidgeted and fussed and the most casual observer could not help knowing that inwardly she was fretting herself into a thousand and one pieces. Other occupants of the street car could not fail to realize that she was not in a contented frame of mind and were mentally occupied in wondering what was the matter.

The curious old lady behind her muttered something about "the crazy critter acting as if she were sittin' on pins and needles," but the comment had no visible effect beyond the general smile which spread quietly over the faces of the onlookers. The apoplectic looking man on the back seat was betting; money that the edge of her linen collar was rough as a cross-cut saw; the young man in the shirt waist thought the woman's corsets must be laced too tight; the modish maiden with the well turned ankle decided that tight shoes must be the cause of the trouble and the baby in arms, if it had said anything at all, would have whimpered sympathetically "prickly heat." The appreciative spectator in the seat across the aisle said nothing but awaited developments, with a half suppressed twinkle in her eye. Only the man who sat two seats in front of the fussy woman seemed calmly oblivious of her fidgets. The small end of a pure Havana was between his lips and he was at peace with all the world.

Finally the woman, whose mental agony became more intense with each flying minute, touched her companion on the arm. "I've got to get out of here. There's no use talking, I can't stand it any longer," she said in tones quivering with indignation and excitement, the words ringing all the more clearly in every ear for her attempt at repression. A gentle attempt at remonstrance was cut short with "I tell you I can't stand it. You know smoke always makes me sick. I can't stay in this car another minute and, that settles it."

The sweet faced, benevolent woman in the seat in front of the woman with the grievance then rose to the emergency and sought to pour oil on the troubled waters. Her sympathies were enlisted and leaning forward she touched the man in front of her on the arm. "I beg your pardon," she said, "but your smoking annoys the lady behind me so much that she feels compelled—" but the sentence was never finished. The man who had been the unconscious cause of this funny little episode turned around and if you will believe it, that saucy little cigar was not lighted at all and what was worse it never had been. "Beg pardon," the man said in surprised indignation, "I am not smoking," and he rose and left the car. Strangely enough, the woman insisted on leaving, too. It was evidently one of those times when she was glad to be alone, away from the maddening crowd. As the car started onward, the appreciative spectator with the twinkle in her eye, murmured, "With her imagination, what a Christian Scientist that woman ought to make!"

If there is one coward more than another for whom intelligent people have a supreme contempt it is the one who writes anonymous letters. It is a contemptible enough business when taken up by spiteful women who are not supposed to fight the battles of life face to face with the foe, but words fail to do justice to the occasion when an able bodied man makes his attacks through the agency of an unsigned letter, in the writing of which he has made every possible attempt to conceal his identity. By the cowardice which he betrays in not daring to sign his name, he gives the lie to any threat which he utters and robs his vile slanders of all the venom which he would like them to possess, thus defeating his own purposes. The joke of the matter is that in one way or another the writer of the letter generally reveals himself and in many instances renders himself liable to prosecution. No self-respecting person ever pays any attention to an anonymous letter. The day when it could terrorize timid women is over. No one has much respect for the opinions and remarks of a man who writes things that he dares not endorse with his name. The anonymous letter may find an excuse for its existence in the fact that it affords its writer an opportunity of relieving his mind of some of the poison and violence there is in it, but the letter has no mission in the world and accomplishes nothing. The cowardly attempt at disguising handwriting so as to cover up all danger of prosecution for vicious lies is really pitiable and one feels not only contempt but pity for the man whose moral character is so low that it is not necessary for him to stoop when he puts paper and pen to such disgraceful use. It seems too bad that he cannot remain in the safe background of the unknown instead of having his name as inevitably betrayed as though he had signed it in the boldest of letters.

But what's the use of talking about disagreeable things when there are so many amusing things in daily life and the newspaper reporter finds so many occasions for a quiet smile on the side. One came to light among the registration blanks filled out by the teachers who are attending the institute at the High school. Among other things the blanks contain a place for the age of the teacher and one of them contained the word "thirty-six" quite heavily written. Evidences of erasure were very plain and beneath the "thirty-six" the word "forty-one" could be discerned without difficulty. The erasing had been done carelessly and imperfectly. That is all there was to the little incident but a person is apt to draw inferences.

It was her first day in the employ of her new mistress, a popular young housewife of whom the highest social circle in the city is proud. The mistress had great hopes and was so happy over the fact that she had succeeded in capturing a servant girl, that she beamed her pleasantest and sweetest as she said, "Now, Mary, there are some rolls in the refrigerator and I'd like you to put them in the oven a few minutes before breakfast tomorrow morning so that they will be hot." The newly acquired treasure said "Yes mum" blandly enough and her mistress went to her downy couch with her mind freed from all responsibilities concerning breakfast. The dawn of morning dispelled her fair dreams, however. There were no rolls on the table, and calling Mary to the dining room, the mistress asked her where the rolls were. Imagine her surprise when the servant pointed to a dish of English walnuts which adorned the center of the table. And they were piping hot.

Did you hear about the young society matron who issued invitations for a reception to people who had been dead three or four years?

LAY PLANS FOR GOLF TOURNAMENT

Meeting of the Directors of the Sinissippi Club Last Night—New Members Are Elected.

A meeting of the board of directors of the Sinissippi Golf club was held last evening at J. P. Baker's drug store. No business of great importance was transacted. The coming tournament was the subject of much talk and numerous plans were suggested to carry it to a successful ending. The members of the club feel certain that they will be able to handle the tournament in first class shape. The club house arrangements are all complete and the grounds will be put in as good condition as it is possible to have them. The drought has been as hard on the golf links as it has been on growing crops and they are badly burned up.

The close dry grass is no drawback to good playing through the fair green but it makes the putting greens rough and uncertain. A gasoline engine has been installed at the grounds for the purpose of pumping water and a sprinkling wagon will be kept going every night from now until the end of the tournament, sprinkling the greens which should be in fair shape by Thursday.

There will be plenty of work for from twenty-five or thirty boys from fourteen to seventeen years of age, caddying during the tournament. A shelter will be provided for them and a head caddy will have charge of sending them out so that all will have a chance to work that wish to. The events will be under the supervision of a games committee composed of Charles E. Pierce, W. A. Jackson and Colin C. MacLean. Mr. Pierce will have charge of all the records and scores of the matches and other preliminaries.

H. D. Hoover, Margaret Mout, Mrs. A. E. Bingham, Charles Putnam, Rev. Father Harlan and Rev. Spellman were elected members of the club at the directors meeting last evening.

The meeting for the formation of the Wisconsin state golf association will be held on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Grand Hotel. The most of the clubs throughout the state will be represented at the meeting. Each club is entitled to two delegates who will take part in the formation of the association. A constitution and by-laws and a code of rules will be adopted and plans for the future annual meeting arranged.

The tournament will cost the club considerable money and it is hoped that he members will subscribe liberally to the cause when asked.

RECEPTION GIVEN EPWORTH LEAGUE

Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Hall Entertain the Young People of Court Street M. E. Church.

Last evening at the Court Street M. E. church parsonage Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Hall entertained the young people of the church and congregation, the occasion being a reception given for the Epworth League. It was a delightful informal occasion and a large company of young people enjoyed the hospitality of their genial pastor and his gracious wife. Both house and lawn were lighted the lawn being gay with Chinese lanterns which were suspended from the porch of the house and from the trees. The early part of the evening was spent on the lawn by the entire company but at about half past eight Mr. Hall invited his guests to the house where a very pleasant program was given.

Misses Lillie Crowley and Matie Paul opened the program with a mandolin duet, "Irene Waltz," which they played so pleasingly that they were obliged to respond to an encore. They play exceptionally well for such young musicians. Mrs. John Gavey recited a humorous selection with which the audience was greatly pleased and later in the evening she gave another amusing story. The second selection was in German dialect and Mrs. Gavey won much praise for the excellent recitations. Encores were demanded after each number but she declined to respond.

Pearl Peters recited a humorous missionary story in a manner that was a credit to this talented young lady. The gem of the evening's program, however, was the violin solo by Harry Stevens who plays with exquisite touch and expression. He played "Cavatina" by Raff but declined an insistent encore.

After the program the guests engaged in a lively and interesting contest. It was a search for hidden cities which were represented by different articles placed in the two parlors and it occasioned a great deal of amusement, while as a promoter of sociability it was a great success. Joseph Gsell found the greatest number of the hidden cities and was awarded the first prize, while Miss Harriet Rogers captured the booby prize.

Later in the evening there was some excellent harmonica music by E. E. Van Pool. Delicious lemon ice and wafers were served in the dining room and at a seasonable hour good-nights were reluctantly said by the delighted guests.

SOCIAL EVENT AT GOLF CLUB HOUSE

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jeffris Entertain Informally in Honor of Miss Ford of Chicago.

In honor of Miss Faye Ford of Chicago, one of the most delightful social events of the summer season was enjoyed by about thirty couples of the young people of this city, last evening. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jeffris, at whose home Miss Ford is visiting, were the host and hostess and they entertained at the Golf club house.

It was an ideal evening and night had not yet fallen when the guests arrived at the pleasant club house. They were received on the broad porch most informally by Mr. and Mrs. Jeffris and Miss Ford and the entire occasion was characterized by perfect informality which was very delightful.

The great reception hall of the club house never looked more attractive than it did for last evening's party. The fire-place was filled with black-eyed Susans and the mantel was banked with a profusion of the same saucy, nodding blossoms whose picturesque beauty of form and coloring made them especially effective decorations.

Dancing was the program of the evening and the smooth floor was kept well filled with gracefully moving figures. Music was furnished by Roy Carter whose playing seems to be imbued with an inspiration which no dancer can resist. Between the dances, the guests found strong attraction in opposite corners of the room where the Misses Irma and Robena Keller presided at well filled frappe bowls.

When the evening was about half spent more elaborate refreshments were served. Mrs. Jeffris being assisted in serving by Mrs. J. K. Jeffris and the Misses Grace Mout, Margaret Mout, Irma Keller and Robena Keller.

About eleven o'clock carnyalls called for the party and took the merry-makers to their homes, everyone having been delighted with the occasion which was one of pleasure and perfect enjoyment. Among the guests

The Best Remedy for Stomach and Bowel Troubles.

"I have been in the drug business for twenty years and have sold most all of the proprietary medicines of any note. Among the entire list I have never found anything to equal Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for all stomach and bowel troubles," says O. W. Wakefield, of Columbus, Ga. "This remedy cured two severe cases of cholera morbus in my family and I have recommended and sold hundreds of bottles of it to my customers to their entire satisfaction. It affords a quick and sure cure in a pleasant form. No family should be without it. I keep it in my house at all times. For sale by Peoples Drug Store and King's Pharmacy.

When you want a modern, up-to-date physic, try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at King's pharmacy and People's drug store.

Heartburn.

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, heartburn is likely to follow, and especially so if the constitution has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let six hours elapse between meals and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, indicating that you have eaten too much, take one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the heartburn may be avoided. For sale by King's pharmacy and People's drug store.

Cuts and bruises are cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm in about one third the time any other treatment will require because of its antiseptic qualities which cause the parts to heal without maturation. For sale by Peoples Drug Store and King's Pharmacy.

Epworth League Entertainment

Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Hall will entertain the members of the Epworth League and the young people of the Court Street M. E. church and congregation at the parsonage this evening. A brief musical and literary program has been arranged for and will be given at eight o'clock. The balance of the evening will be spent in a social manner and light refreshments will be served. All young people of the church and congregation are invited to be present.

The Stimulus of Pure Blood

That is what is required by every organ of the body, for the proper performance of its functions.

It prevents biliousness, dyspepsia, constipation, kidney complaint, rheumatism, catarrh, nervousness, weakness, faintness, pimples, blotches, and all cutaneous eruptions.

It perfects all the vital processes.

W. P. Keeton, Woodstock, Ala., took Hood's Sarsaparilla to make his blood pure. He writes that he had not felt well but tired for some time. Before he had finished the first bottle of this medicine he felt better and when he had taken the second was like another man—free from that tired feeling and able to do his work.

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST

Generally fair tonight and Sunday, east winds.

CONTENTMENT.

Little two year old Sammy was splashing around in the water the other day, badly demoralizing his Sunday suit, yet happier than he would have been in Sunday school.

The mother was a good deal annoyed, but the father said:

"Let him have a good time and be happy while he can."

The little fellow was happy, because contented. He cared nothing for the Sunday dress, but everything for the water and frolic, and so, as he comes on into life his happiness will depend upon the conditions that contribute to contentment.

The search for happiness, in which so many people are eagerly engaged, is frequently a fruitless search, because the sources of happiness are not always recognized.

The young man starts out into life with an ambition to acquire a fortune. He marries a girl who is willing to sacrifice everything for riches, becomes an altar of sacrifice, not for love, but for wealth.

The claims of society are not recognized, the church is neglected, the children breathe an atmosphere that is unwholesome, every energy is bent to the making and saving of money.

Talk to the father and mother about happiness, and they will tell you that time is too precious to waste, and yet the lines of care and worry already indicate the strain of overwrought nerves and muscles.

They will tell you that when they reach middle life, they propose to retire from hard work and settle down to the enjoyment of a good, long rest, with plenty of money to carry them down the shady side, and so they anticipate and plan for the long honeymoon, to find as they approach the coveted period only disappointment.

At fifty, they are prematurely old. The children have gone out from the home, feeling little regret, and cherishing but little in the way of love and pleasant memories. They discover that money cannot buy happiness or renew youth.

The husband is broken in health, and in a few years he is under the sod, with nothing left to mark his memory, but a property that never brought happiness, and a widow to travel the rest of the journey alone.

Charity may suggest that Divine Providence had something to do with the man's removal, but the facts are, that he deliberately cut off his own career, after missing all the prizes that contentment brings to the home in normal conditions. Better to stay been broken in St. Louis. Des a holiday together, now and then, and leave a little less property, if necessary.

Life is what we get out of every day existence. While every prudent man and woman plans for a rainy day, and old age, yet, in the planning it is well to remember that contentment is a priceless jewel, and yet so easy to obtain that it is within the grasp of every day experience.

The worries of life frequently become chronic. People tell you that they worry because they can't help it, forgetting to add that they never try.

Men worry about their business, when the same energy invested in the enterprise, would insure success.

Women worry about their neighbors, and the worry frequently leads to gossip, forgetting that the neighbors are able to do their own worrying, and are not suffering for sympathy along that line.

The pastor worries about his flock, until he imagines he has the most unappreciative church in the town, forgetting that the church of the living God stands as a bulwark of strength, and that great honor is his because called to leadership.

The mother worries about her children from the time they leave the cradle, to paddle in the water, until they leave home to take on the responsibilities of life, missing all the happiness that contentment brings to the home, and the joy that child life contributes.

When the good Lord made the world and decorated it with the green of summer and the white of winter, so deftly distributing His favors, that seed time and harvest was an assured fact, and when He peopled it with humanity, a part of the Divine plan was contentment in every realm of his vast domain.

His reign is absolute over the entire creation, except in the hearts of men, where human will is at liberty to frustrate Divine planning.

It is possible to so mar the image, created in the likeness of its Maker, that contentment, and all other Christian graces, will be destroyed. When this occurs, the result is wreckage, and disappointment.

Better by far to make the best of every-day life with its varied surroundings, than to worry through the years into an early grave, after missing all the prizes that might have been enjoyed.

Chicago has awakened to the necessity of putting a stop to the damage suit drain, and has adopted an excellent remedy—the abolishing of plank sidewalks. The Tribune says:

"In accordance with an ordinance passed the Board of Local Improvements has ceased to permit the laying of plank sidewalks anywhere in Chicago, except where the established grade is three feet above the lot. This exempts only certain restricted regions in South Chicago and in the Sixth ward, near the river, where the ground is so low that the cost of filling it up to grade would be ruinous to the owners. Everywhere else the plank walk is under the ban, and every new walk must be of stone, cement or cinders. By permitting cinder paths the authorities avoid inflicting any hardship on property owners in outlying districts who cannot afford cement walks as yet. The excellent feature about the new arrangement is that it promises to put an end to the intolerable series of damage suits inflicted upon the city by people who claim to have suffered personal injuries through defective wooden sidewalks. The aggregate of damage claims against the city at present is $3,500,000, on which the interest alone is $210,000 annually. By far the greater part of this sum represents judgments awarded for real or alleged injuries received on defective wooden sidewalks. The city attorney cites the significant fact that there is not a single case on record where a personal injury claim had its origin on a cement or stone sidewalk. Many of the claims are fraudulent, but, with the number of broken plank walks everywhere making such accidents possible, the impostors fare almost as well as the hands of justice as do the real sufferers. By abolishing wooden walks altogether it is to be hoped that the city may in time bring this scandalous and costly chapter to a close. If the new ordinance aids in accomplishing this desirable end it will be one of the most important acts the council has passed during the year."

We must gently but firmly refuse to give currency to any of the many mean things said about The Gazette by the new Milwaukee half breed organ. As it is, no one sees them, and they are not of sufficient importance to be reproduced by any paper having as large a general circulation as The Gazette.

Mark Twain's "jumping frog" held the record for many years, but it is no longer it. A frog living at Alton, Mo., ate dynamite and then exploded, killing two "innocent bystanders," and injuring others. This is probably the widest swathe ever cut by a frog.

The State Board of Control should also secure a "trained educator" to instruct some of its newspaper defenders. They are putting up a defense that doesn't defend.

Appleton women are combining to prevent smoking—by the factory chimneys.

Bryan, too, probably thinks Ohio democrats might better vote the republican ticket.

SHOT BY A LUNATIC ON RAILROAD TRAIN

Ned Hartley, Who Did Shooting, Put in a 'Claim That Man Had Him Hypnotized.

Rawlins, July 12.—On the Union Pacific train last night a man named Rogers was shot and instantly killed by Ned Hartley of Copeland, enroute to Council Bluffs. He says the man "had him hypnotized." It is believed that Copeland is insane.

OTIS SPURNED ADVICE.

Correspondence Between Him and Mac Arthur Is Published.

New York, July 12.—A special to the Tribune from Washington says: The unabridged report of Gen. MacArthur, covering his field of operations before he relieved Gen. Otis as governor-general of the Philippines on May 5 last year, which has just been published in volume 6 of Gen. Miles' annual report, presents some interesting telegraphic correspondence. The first of these messages is as follows:

"United States Military Telegraph, Bayambang, Nov. 23, 1899, 9:15 a. m.—Gen. Schwan, Chief of Staff, Manila: The so-called Filipino republic is destroyed. The congress has dissolved. The president of the so-called republic is a fugitive, as are all of his cabinet officers, except one in our hands. The executive department is therefore entirely broken up. The generals are separated without any power of conference or concentrated action."

"In this view, how would it do to issue a proclamation at an early date offering complete amnesty to all who surrender within a stated time, with a payment of thirty pesos to every soldier who gives up a rifle and declaring with emphasis that after the date fixed the killing of American soldiers will be regarded as murder and that all persons concerned therein would be regarded as murderers and treated accordingly."

"This is a suggestion for your personal consideration, to be presented to the department commander at your discretion."

"MAC ARTHUR."

To this Gen. Otis ordered the following reply sent: United States Military Telegraph, Palace, Manila, P. I., Dec. 9, 1899, 11:35 a. m.—Gen. MacArthur: Your telegram announcing your policy received. Your recommendations concerning proclamation cannot be carried out; legal difficulties of an international character, apparently not understood by you, forbid. No further advice on this subject is desired by the commanding general.

"SCHWAN, Chief of Staff."

A MOST FAIR PROPOSITION

My callers are my best advertisers. Every morning, from this day on, Madame De Odd will give free tests in medium work between the hours of 10 to 11 o'clock in private parlors at South Jackson Street. You pay nothing. Madame De Odd and attendants will be in Janesville for several weeks. To introduce herself she makes this most liberal proposition:

She asks no questions; tells the names of friends and enemies; tells what you have called for; tells your name in full; tells all about your business affairs; tells things you should know. Does another share the love that should belong to you, or is there some one else's love you wish to gain, or have you secret enemies or rivals you wish to overcome? Do you want to get proof, facts and names in regard to whether husband, wife or sweetheart is true or false? Do you want success in luck, love, marriage, health, business and speculations? Special attention given to the location and discovery of old estates, lost documents, lost or absent friends—in a word whatever your troubles, suspicions, hopes, fears, or desires, you are earnestly invited to call, and you will be rewarded by obtaining a clear insight into the future. Also if you care to learn the lives and fates of those who are dear to you. All business private and confidential. Satisfaction guaranteed. Evil influences broken, good luck given. Your personal magnetism developed in 21 days.

ONE MORE VICTIM OF WRECK.

Miss Lottie Still, Injured in Alton Accident Expires.

Kansas City, July 13.—Another death was today added to the list of victims of the Chicago and Alton wreck near Norton, Mo., Wednesday. Miss Lottie L. Still, aged 26 years of Hornellville, N. Y., died at University Hospital at 4:30 this morning. She was badly burned about the arms, face and shoulders, and had been unconscious for nearly forty-eight hours. Leslie S. Colburn of Paw Paw, Mich., who was not expected to survive the night, was alive at 10 o'clock this morning. Miss Julia M. Hayalip, Chenoa, Ill.; Mrs. Annie Morrison, Valparaiso, Ind.; Miss Ora E. Talman, Valparaiso, Ind., and Mrs. C. W. Snyder, Jasper, Ill., the other most seriously injured, were all slightly improved today, with better chances of recovery.

Saved Crew of the Brig.

New York, July 13.—The Morgan line steamer El Rio, Capt. Mason, arrived today from New Orleans, and reported that on July 9, in latitude 25:50, longitude 84:58, she fell in with the wrecked brig L. F. Munson, from Mobile for Sagua, and took off Capt. C. A. Watt and seven men. The next day a Key West pilot boat was sighted. Capt. Watt, his mate and three seamen were transferred to the pilot boat, which was bound home. The other three men were brought to this port. The L. F. Munson was built at East Machias in 1871 and hailed from New York. Her tonnage was 357 net.

Old Warship Is Condemned.

Washington, July 13.—The secretary of the navy has ordered the famous old Minnesota to be stricken from the naval register. A board of condemnation has just appraised her at $15,000, and she will be sold at public auction at Boston, where she now lies. The Minnesota is one of the most noted vessels of the old navy. She was built in Washington in 1855, and was the flagship of Admiral Goldsboro in the famous battle between the Merrimac and the Union fleet in Hampton roads, the day before the Monitor arrived.

REV. RICHEY'S HOUSE ROBBED

THIEVES GET LITTLE PLUNDER
FOR THEIR WORK.

Robbery Not Discovered Until This Morning, When Rev. Richey Returned from Madison—Mrs. Richey Saved Silver by Taking It With Her—Entrance by Kitchen Window

When Rev. J. A. M. Richey returned from Madison today and entered his home at the Trinity church parsonage he found the house in great disorder. Everything had been ransacked by thieves in their search for plunder. Bureau drawers stood open and their contents were scattered about the floor. Trunks had been pried open and ransacked by the robbers who had evidently taken their time, finding no one at home, to make a thorough search of the premises.

After a careful inventory of the household property Rev. Richey could find nothing missing but a pair of trousers. The thieves had evidently been in search of money or plate and not finding any had left after taking the trousers. At first sight Rev. Richey thought that the valuable silver belonging to the church and some that belonged to himself and wife had been taken. He telephoned to his wife at Madison in regard to it and was informed that she had the silver with her in her trunk, being afraid to leave it in the house while they were away.

The robbery occurred sometime between Thursday afternoon and this morning, just when cannot be told. Rev. Richey and his wife went to Madison on Thursday on a visit and returned home this morning at 10:35 to find that the house had been entered during his absence.

The thieves secured an entrance to the house through a rear kitchen window. The blinds had been forced open, the screen taken out, and the sash raised, giving them an easy mode of entrance. The house stands some distance back from the street and is hemmed in by other buildings so that the thieves had a good chance to work unobserved.

The police were notified of the robbery and are working on the case.

HAS A NARROW ESCAPE

Heavy Timber Grazes Harry Kirkland's Head and Crushes His Hand

Harry Kirkland had a narrow escape from serious injury if not death while at work at the stone crusher plant yesterday but fortunately escaped with slight injuries to the side of his face and a badly bruised hand. Young Kirkland was rolling a keg of nails in the building when a large stringer fell just grazing his right temple and catching his hand between the timber and the nail-keg. The fragments of his hand are quite badly injured. Had the timber struck him fairly on the head, Mr. Kirkland would probably not be congratulating himself on his narrow escape.

GOOD TEMPLARS HOLD A JUBILEE

Fiftieth Anniversary of the Organization of That Order Was Celebrated Last Night.

The fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the Independent Order of Good Templars, which has been made a jubilee occasion all over the civilized world during the past week, was celebrated in a most appropriate manner by People's Lodge No. 460, of this city, at Good Templars' hall last evening.

No elaborate arrangement had been made for the celebration but it was a very happy occasion and one that was greatly enjoyed by the large audience. An open lodge meeting was held and a large number of outsiders accepted the invitation of the lodge to join in the evening's pleasure.

Chief Templar Charles Ward presided and J. A. Canniff had charge of the excellent program. The exercises of the evening opened with singing after which Rev. W. W. Woodside offered prayer.

Fred Carle, for several years district lecturer for the order, gave a very interesting growth of its growth. The Good Templars' order was organized in Utica, N. Y., and from that small beginning with thirteen charter members it has grown until it includes 13,000 subordinate lodges and has a membership of 600,000. The order extended from this country to England in 1868 and now covers the whole civilized world. The order is organized with the subordinate lodge, the district lodge, the grand lodge and the right worthy grand lodge. In connection with the subordinate lodge there is the juvenile temple, which represents the order's work for children. The Grand Lodge of Wisconsin was organized in 1866 and at present the order has a membership of about 13,000 members in the state. While Mr. Carle confined himself almost exclusively to the statistical history of the order, he found opportunity to give many other interesting facts regarding the order's growth. He is a very entertaining speaker and enjoyed the closest attention of his audience.

J. C. Kline extended hearty congratulations on the occasion. He spoke very highly of a lodge that could boast of being conducted here for twenty-three years during which time it had never missed a meeting. He referred to the fact that the lodge had first met on the lower floor of the building and now had its meeting place on the third floor and drew a happy smile in which he said that it was a good thing for an organization to be going up. He complimented an order whose principles mean life and whose motives are to enlarge and to grow. Character gives confidence and courage and tenacity of purpose always succeeds both in members and power.

Rev. W. W. Woodside responded very happily to Mr. Kline's congratulatory remarks. He then told several interesting incidents of the evils of the liquor habit and made a strong and eloquent temperance address.

The addresses of the evening were interspersed with some excellent music, including a well rendered organ solo by Miss Olive Trambie; an organ duet nicely played by Misses Clara and Mabel Yates; a pleasing guitar solo by Miss Myrtle Williams and a vocal solo, delightfully sung, by Elmer E. Van Pool.

After the formal program there was a pleasant social time. Several of those present participated in a grand march for which Miss Olive Trambie played the organ. A number of young gentlemen gathered together in the ante room and sang several selections which were greatly enjoyed and it was late in the evening when the local celebration of the Good Templars' fiftieth jubilee came to a close.

DEATH CLAIMS AN EARLY SETTLER

Mrs. Sarah Rooney Passes Peacefully Away This Morning After a Long and Severe Illness.

Exhausted by two years of suffering, Mrs. Sarah Rooney, widow of the late Thomas Rooney, was unable to withstand the extreme hot weather and this morning at 9:30 o'clock she closed her eyes in the everlasting rest. Her death occurred at her home east of this city on Racine street, near the Black Hawk woods.

Mrs. Rooney was one of the pioneer settlers of this city where she had resided for many years. She was about seventy years of age and had been an invalid for the past two years. She was a truly good woman, a devoted mother, a kind neighbor and a faithful friend. She was highly esteemed by all who knew her and she leaves many friends to mourn her loss.

Deceased was born in the County Leitrim, Ireland, in 1832 and came to this country when a young girl, settling in Vermont. She was married to the late Thomas Rooney in 1849 and came to this state the next year. For the last fifty-one years she has resided in Janesville.

The bereavement falls most heavily on the daughter and three sons, Miss Agatha, Jerome J., Leo and Legaro Rooney, all of whom reside at home. Two grand children, Della and Harry Rooney, the children of the late Richard Rooney, also mourn her loss and one sister, Mrs. James Diamond of Chicago, and one brother, James Coyne of Atlanta, Ga., also survive. Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed.

Anaconda, Mont., July 13.—Mrs. Josephine Winfield Brake of Buffalo, N. Y., author and Washington correspondent for a New York newspaper, has been in Montana for the last week searching for "Calamity Jane," the noted plainwoman. Yesterday Mrs. Brake discovered Calamity Jane in the hut of a nigger at Horr, near Livingston. The poor woman was suffering with fever and was broken in spirit. The scene that followed the offer of Mrs. Brake to take Calamity to her own home in Buffalo, where she could spend the remainder of her days in comfort was pathetic in the extreme, and the noted frontierswoman wept like a child.

Calamity Jane has been on the frontier since she was a young girl. She was in the Black Hills at the time of the killing of Wild Bill (William Hickok) and it is said that it was she who captured his murderer. She rendered valuable services to Custer, Reno, Egan and other Indian fighters. Of late years she has drifted about the state from place to place, making a livelihood as best she could. During the summer she sold pictures of herself to park tourists. During the last two years she has been ill a considerable portion of the time.

The newspapers printed columns about her through means of which the attention of General Egan and many other friends of the woman was called to the plight of their friend of early days. The result is that Mrs. Brake took the step mentioned. The two women have left Livingston for Buffalo. Calamity Jane is about 50 years of age. Her maiden name was Canary and she is said to be from New York. She married a drayman of Livingston, named Burk.

Serious Affray Follows an Excursion at St. Paul.

St. Paul, July 13.—The waiters' union gave a steamboat excursion down the river last night, and some of those on board got into an altercation. When the boat landed on its return trip someone began throwing rocks at a waiter named Edward Healy.

Healy drew a revolver and fired, fatally wounding Ed Rooney, a drug clerk from Duluth. A crowd then took after Healy, who ran, pistol in hand, up Jackson street. Being closely pursued he turned and fired again, the bullet striking George Daly in the leg and inflicting a painful wound. Healy was then overpowered and taken into custody.

Gov. Renfrow says DANDERINE Is a great discovery.

GOV. RENFROW Endorses Danderine.

GOVERNOR RENFROW.

The Governor's indorsement:

Joplin, Mo., May 2. Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago—Dear Sirs: Dandruff, loss of hair and an intensely itching scalp have been a source of great annoyance to me during the past five years. I have tried many so-called remedies, but not until I tried DANDERINE did I find relief. Danderine gave immediate relief and affected a permanent cure. I consider it a great discovery. It surely does all you claim. Most respectfully,

W. C. Renfrow CHICAGO, ILL.

Danderine excites the admiration of every one who tries it, simply because it is absolutely reliable and the greatest hair and scalp vitalizer that has ever been produced.

The following directions will be of interest to every user of this great tonic:

DIRECTIONS.

In cases of baldness pour the liquid in the palm of the hand and apply it to the scalp once a day, twice if necessary, rubbing in lightly. After the hair starts to grow discontinue the rubbing. In those cases where the scalp has become very thin and shiny, saturate a flannel cloth with Danderine and bind it on the head, letting it remain over night; keep this up for two or three weeks. In cases where the hair is thin and falling, apply the tonic by pouring it in the hand and patting it in instead of rubbing. Always apply a sufficient amount to thoroughly saturate the scalp. The more you use the quicker and greater the results will be. If you will keep these directions and follow them we will guarantee you a more beautiful head of hair than you ever possessed in your life. This guaranty applies to any one—old or young. We know that Danderine is the greatest discovery of its kind ever made, and we take pride in placing our guaranty back of it.

Get a 25-cent bottle from your druggist and use it according to directions, and it does not exactly what we say, go to the same druggist and get your money back. We have made arrangements with all druggists to refund the price when the demand is made for same, and they will do it. Full particulars with every bottle. We also guarantee Danderine not to change the natural color of the hair. For sale by drug and toilet stores in three sizes—25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

A Well-Known Traveling Man, Tells of His Success with Danderine in a Very Nice Letter Herewith Reproduced.

FRED McADAMS.

Read what Mr. McAdams has to say: Milton Junction, Wis., Jan. 29, 1901. Knowlton's Danderine Co.—Dear Sirs: I feel that I ought to tell you what Danderine has done for me. Six months ago my hair was nearly bald. I was obliged to wear a wig. I tried several different kinds of hair restorers without any help. I was advised by my druggist here to use Danderine. I purchased a bottle on his guaranty, and after using it one week my hair stopped falling out. I am now on my fourth bottle and my hair at the present time is over five inches long, glossy and curly, where it was dead looking and straight before. It has also cured me of dandruff, which greatly annoyed me. I cannot speak too highly of your Danderine. Wishing you unlimited success, remain yours, very respectfully,

Fred McAdams

VALUE OF TREES TO LIVING THINGS

Leaves Work by Distributing These for Man's Benefit—Lumber,
Fruit and Shade Not All.

Most people have formed the habit of talking about shade trees, fruit trees and lumber as if shade, fruit and building materials were all for which the trees were good. Of course the artistic eye looks at them for beauty, the entomologist as harbors for insects and the botanist for herbarium specimens, but the true lover of the tree thinks of it in its value to all living things in the universe.

Though trees lack the power of volition and have no nervous system in the ordinary sense of the word, they are highly organized forms of life. They accomplish a vast amount of actual work in a day and earn their living as surely as you and I do. Their work is the world's work of the unselfish kind. They struggle for self-preservation and the perpetuation of their species; they return to the soil and to the atmosphere materials loaned them for food; they are altruistic in providing an abundance of fruit for the use of others; they furnish grateful shade to man and beast, are the refuge of birds and insects and add to the beauty of nature.

Value of the Trunk.
Utilitarians consider the trunk the important part of the tree. The trunk is a wise makeshift of nature which towers aloof and tries to lift the vital organs of the tree—the leaves—out of harm's way and into purer air and brighter sunshine. Beneath the ground the strong roots and rootlets have hundreds of eager, thirsty mouths which take nourishment from the earth. Water and mineral water are carried upward by the process of capillary attraction, to the leaves in the crown and the branches for digestion and assimilation. A leafless tree stands little chance of living. Trees denuded of their leaves by caterpillars and other mischievous things are deprived of their stomachs and lungs at once.

Every leaf on a tree is unceasingly industrious day and night. Examine the hidden leaf, or in fact, any leaf will do—the truth applies to all—and notice how its surface is spread to catch the sunshine. The under side of the leaf has a different appearance. The tissue is tender and a network of breathing pores. A section placed under the objective of the microscope reveals tiny cells filled with greenish liquid called chlorophyll, which plays an important part in the domestic economy of the tree. When undigested food from the ground has been carried to the leaves the chlorophyll seizes it, and under the influence of sunlight changes it to nourishment. The chlorophyll also breaks up the carbon dioxide with which it comes in contact, and liberating the oxygen, sends it out into the atmosphere.

Leaves Act As Lungs.
Digested food materials are carried from the leaves to all parts of the tree and aid in its growth. Leaves as the lungs are necessary in the process of breathing. Like animals the tree needs oxygen and breathes much after the manner of a human being. Not only is the life-giving air taken into the lungs, or leaves, but it is inhaled through tiny openings in the bark, just as man and animals transpire through the skin. These tiny breathing holes are called lenticles and may be seen plainly on the bark of cherry and many other kinds of trees. As the tree drinks water, it sweats and exhales water vapor along with the oxygen cast off from the carbon dioxide.

Tons and tons of moisture is evaporated from wooded areas. This is another beneficial act. Water vapor in the atmosphere is essential to agriculture. Trees transpire through cracks and fissures in the bark, where the lenticles are hidden from sight. This is especially true in old trees. From time to time scientists have computed the leaf area of trees and the results have been astonishing. An ordinary linden leaf has a surface of ten square inches. Multiply this by the number of leaves on a branch and calculate the leafage area of a tree. This entire surface is liberating oxygen and water vapor day and night.

In the arid sections of the West the people are beginning to see that forestry and irrigation are the factors which will count for their prosperity. About 1,000,000 square miles or more than one third of the United States, is forest land. The destruction of forests has been extravagant and the government has taken the matter in hand and decided on thirty-eight reservations where the forests will be under intelligent supervision.

BAN ON SUNDAY NEWSPAPERS.

Winona Lake Assembly Will Tighten Lines of Prohibition.

Winona Lake, Ind., July 15.—Sunday newspapers have been tabooed by the Winona assembly management and their sale prohibited. This order was given out some time ago, but two or three enterprising newsboys from Warsaw succeeded in smuggling in the Sunday papers, which were eagerly bought by the Winonians. This smuggling has been discovered and Dr. Hickey, the general manager, declared today more stringent measures should be taken to prevent Sunday newspapers from finding a way into the grounds of the assembly, which is a Presbyterian institution. Dana C. Johnson of Springfield, Ohio, delivered a lecture at the assembly on "Joan of Arc."

OHIO JURIST KILLS HIMSELF.

Judge Russell Ends His Life in a Cincinnati Hotel.

Cincinnati, July 15.—A sensational suicide was discovered at the Palace hotel. The self-slayer was D. A. Russell of Pomeroy, judge of the circuit court and a bank president. Nothing whatever is known of the cause. He left a sealed letter addressed to his wife upon which was a special delivery stamp. He killed himself with a revolver. He was a prominent republican and a candidate for the nomination for supreme judge before the republican convention in June.

Every woman loves to think of the time when a soft little body, all her own, will nestle in her bosom, fully satisfying the yearning which lies in the heart of every good woman. But yet there is a black cloud hovering about the pretty picture in her mind which fills her with terror. The dread of childbirth takes away much of the joy of motherhood. And yet it need not be so. For sometime there has been upon the market, well-known and recommended by physicians, a liniment called which makes childbirth as simple and easy as nature intended it. It is a strengthening, penetrating liniment, which the skin readily absorbs. It gives the muscles elasticity and vigor, prevents sore breasts, morning sickness and the loss of the girlish figure. Kodol

Dyspepsia Cure

Digests
what you Eat

Many digestive compounds and tablets are recommended to cure dyspepsia by digesting food with the pepsin they contain. Most of these possess merit, but they all fail in many cases, because pepsin digests only albuminous foods, such as eggs and meat. But we must eat more than eggs and meat; and some of the worst cases of dyspepsia are caused by indigestion of fats and starches and other foods which pepsin cannot digest.

There is one preparation that contains all the digestants. It is KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE, which digests what you eat, and has been used with remarkable success,—not a single failure to cure being reported from the many thousands who have used it.

J. E. Peabody, Pittsfield, N. Y., says: "The first dose of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure relieved my son of stomach and heart trouble, and four bottles of it cured him. I heartily recommend it."

It can't help but do you good

Dizziness and headaches cannot be cured in any other manner than by getting at the root of the trouble and curing the cause.

The cause is almost invariably a disordered digestive system, or else a bad stomach and clogged bowels are responsible. Laxakola, the great Tonic Laxative, is an unfailing cure.

It works gently and painlessly and at the same time acts as a tonic to the bowels, stomach, liver and kidneys and builds up the system instead of weakening and irritating it as other laxatives do.

Its remarkable properties reach every organ—the liver, kidneys and stomach, nerve, heart and brain—and removes the cause of your debilitated condition. This is the only way to secure an absolute and permanent cure. Laxakola is the only medicine for babies, is purely vegetable and its action is gentle, speedy and effective. For coated tongue, simple fevers, colds, chills and languid feeling it is the ideal medicine.

It tastes good. Children like it and ask for it.

LAXAKOLA FOR WOMEN. It is a gentle and safe remedy to use during all conditions of health of the gentler sex whenever their peculiar and delicate constitutions require a mild and efficient laxative and tonic, and is invaluable in assisting to relieve obstructions which otherwise would lead to more or less severe pain or illness. It improves the complexion, brightens the eyes, sharpens the appetite, quickens the circulation, removes muddy and blotched condition of the skin and cures sick headache certainly by removing its cause. To women suffering from chronic constipation, biliousness, dizziness, sallowness of the skin and dyspepsia, Laxakola will invariably bring relief. At druggists, 25c. and 50c., or send for free sample to THE LAXAKOLA CO., 115 Nassau Street, N. Y., or 336 Dearborn Street, Chicago.

OPPOSE POMP OF BURIAL SERVICES

English Foes of Ostentation at Funeralists Will Extend Their Fight to America.

London, July 13.—Missionaries representing the Church of England Burial, Funeral and Mourning Reform association are soon to visit the United States to preach the gospel of nonostentation.

It was asserted at the annual meeting of the association in London this afternoon that America's love for show was greater than that of England, and that a very wide field awaited the society's efforts in yankeeland. Rev. Frederick Lawrence, vicar of York and honorary secretary of the association, will lead the invasion.

With the meteoric growth of American wealth, said Dr. Lawrence today, "there comes a clamoring for baechanlian display that makes it difficult to believe that the United States was ever the cradle of democratic simplicity. There is no other country in the world where such striving is so great. Unfortunately it is not always ethereal heights that are sought. More often the pursuit of excellence becomes a mere race after vanity. We think Americans are great enough and rich enough to bear themselves soberly, and we want to extend to them the benefit of our experience in Great Britain for the purpose of helping them back to their traditional ideals."

Mr. Lawrence states that the gaudiness of Queen Victoria's funeral undid much of the society's work during the last twenty-three years in the direction of burial reform.

Scores Tax Dodgers.

Chicago, July 13.—Tax dodgers and political bosses received a severe castigation from Judge Tuloy at the meeting of the Illinois State Bar association. "The problem of the hour is how to make corporations and wealthy men pay their share of taxation," he said. "In speaking of a convention to frame a new constitution for Illinois, the judge held that the community must be reformed before such a convention could be risked. 'Political bosses govern us,' he declared. 'Vast interests are behind the politicians and those interests would conduct just such a constitutional convention as would suit them.'"

Nephew of Tilden Is Insane.
San Francisco, Cal., July 13.—George C. Tilden, a well-known mineralogist, was committed to the state hospital for the insane at Stockton. While investigating mining property in Salvador Mr. Tilden was attacked with fever and later mental trouble developed. The United States consul at San Salvador had him removed to this city. At the time it was announced that he would eventually recover his health. In the last few days he has displayed suicidal mania. Mr. Tilden was formerly state mineralogist of New York and is a nephew of the late Samuel J. Tilden.

Report on Health Bank.
Washington, July 13.—Comptroller Dawes has received the preliminary report from the receiver of the Seventh National bank of New York city. The receiver states that his estimate of the value of the assets is, of course, only approximate. He estimates the amount which finally will be recovered for the depositors from the assets, including stockholders' assessment, at about 80 cents on the dollar.

$400,000 Sinks in Wreck.
Norfolk, Va., July 13.—The Spanish steamship Urre, Captain Garay, from Bilbao to Philadelphia, with a cargo of ore, which stranded on Great Gull Banks, thirty miles south of the Delaware breakwater, and subsequently broke in two and sunk, was one of the most valuable Spanish merchantmen afloat. The ship and its cargo were valued at upward of $400,000. Everything is a total loss.

Chicago's Population Is 2,080,000.
Chicago, July 13.—The name-collectors were busy gathering cognomens for the new city directory from May 1 to 23. When put on the market the book will contain 2,020 pages of names and indicate, according to the publishers, that Chicago now has a population of, approximately, 2,080,000. The directory itself contains 606,700 names, an increase of 22,700 names over the directory of last year.

Snow Falls on New Jersey.
Trenton, N. J., July 13.—Snow fell in this city to-day. It was plainly visible during a heavy thunderstorm which began shortly after 2 o'clock.

New York, July 13.—Employees of the Syndicate Building, the tallest structure in New York, say that while on the roof of that building they noticed snow fall. The snow turned into rain before their eyes, and in that form reached the street.

Hay Reaches High Price.
Kansas City, Mo., July 13.—A few cars of hay here today sold at $30 a ton, the highest price ever reached in this market. The receipts were very small and much of that arriving had been previously contracted for, causing an extremely scant supply for sale on the open market.

UNION REPORTERS STRIKE.

Trouble on Columbus, Ohio, Press-Post Results in No Issue.

Columbus, O., July 13.—The strained relations between Clarence M. Jones, proprietor of the Press-Post, and the employees of that paper are broken. On Wednesday the city editor and railroad reporter were discharged for getting scooped on a railroad wreck. Last night the union reporters heard they were to be discharged. When they appeared for work this morning they found their places taken by members of the school for journalism of the State University. The printers refused to set up "non-union" copy and walked out. The pressmen followed. The union reporters demanded the reinstatement of the city editor and the railroad reporter and the signing of the union scale for reporters. Mr. Jones declined to do these things, and says he will manage his property to suit himself and not to please his four reporters. No paper was issued.

Fines and Jail for Strikers.
Paterson, N. J., July 13.—Because they ignored the order of the court to leave non-union workers alone, two men were today sentenced to fine and imprisonment and six girls to fines. Clemens Herold, who has been recognized as the leader of the strike, was fined $50 and sentenced to sixty days in the county jail. Emanuel Bossard was fined $25 and sentenced to thirty days in the county jail. Clara Tillwein was fined $50, and Tillie Watson, Clara Ludwig, Florence Judge, Lizzie Englert, and Martha Wardlow were each fined $25.

Machinists' Strike Ends.
Cincinnati, July 13.—The strike of the machinists here was declared off at noon.

THE FIRE RECORD.

Million Dollar Fire in London.
London, July 13.—A fire at the West India docks to-day destroyed a number of huge sheds and their contents. The amount of the damage done is estimated at £250,000. Sugar and timber warehouses were involved in the conflagration. The custom house was damaged, but the vessels in the docks were removed in safety.

Forest Fires in Colorado.
Denver, Col., July 13.—Forest fires are raging in two sections of the state, and it is feared that they will destroy a vast amount of property before they can be controlled and extinguished. One of the fires is on the banks of Chalk creek, in Chaffee county, and the other in Larimer county. Both are said to be in timber and on school lands.

Negro Bankers to Convene.
New York, July 13.—A national convention of negro bankers of the United States has been called to meet at Buffalo Sept. 26-28. The arrangements for the convention are in the hands of John Clinton, Jr., of Philadelphia. It is proposed to organize a national association of colored bankers.

Oil Strike in Oklahoma.
Guthrie, O. T., July 13.—The people of Granite, O. T., are wild with excitement over the discovery of oil near that town. The oil was found at the depth of 107 feet and spouted to the surface in great quantities. A company that sank the well will go deeper in hopes of developing a gusher.

Mrs. Bonine Is Indicted.
Washington, July 13.—The grand jury, after several weeks' investigation, has just returned an indictment for murder against Mrs. Ida Bonine for the alleged killing of James S. Ayres, the young census clerk.

Ohio Postoffice Robbed.
Toledo, O., July 13.—The postoffice in Weston was robbed last night of $100 in stamps and $20 in cash.

ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR

Hundreds of Janesville Citizens Can Tell You All About It.

Home endorsement, the public expression of Janesville people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Janesville reader. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them, will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers residing in far away places.

Read the following:
Mrs. S. L. Beiden of 64 S. River St. says: "During two or three years I suffered most of the time with a terrible dragging down pain in my back just over the kidneys. It was very trying when I was at work, and if I did any lifting my bladder became affected, causing me considerable annoyance. I also had attacks of headaches, which seemed like congestion in the top and back of my head. When I read about Doan's Kidney Pills I did not have any too much confidence in them, but my daughter got a box at the People's Drug Co.'s store and persuaded me to use them. They took right hold and made a wonderful change in my condition. I hardly realized how bad I was until Doan's Kidney Pills brought me relief from the afflictions. For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Also on sale at King's Pharmacy.
Remember the name Doan's and take no other."

Baby's Coming

McDonald, Ga., July 18, 1900.
I advise every suffering woman to take Wine of Cardui. While I was going with my other children I was compelled to stay in bed for days at a time, but this time I have taken Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught and have been able to do all my housework without any trouble. I am expecting every day to be confined. My husband thinks Wine of Cardui is the best medicine in the world. He takes a dose of Theodor's Black-Draught every night and gives some to the children. He has not lost a day from work this year. He tells his friends about your wonderful medicines and I tell my lady friends to use your Wine of Cardui.
Mrs. GEORGIA LEE.

WINE OF CARDUI

There are thousands of women who shrink in terror at the thought of the baby's coming. But childbirth is one of the workings of Nature and it was not intended to imply torture and agony to the heroic mothers of the race. The woman who suffers torture during pregnancy and at childbirth has usually, by some irregularities leads to ovarian pains, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea, and the period of pregnancy is necessarily distressing under those conditions. Wine of Cardui will regulate the menstrual function perfectly and eventually make the generative organs strong and healthy. Pregnancy and childbirth have no terrors for the woman who takes this pure Wine. A strong healthy womb will bring its precious burden to maturity with little or no pain. A healthy woman need not fear childbirth. Wine of Cardui completely cures all these troubles familiarly known as "female diseases" and equips the sensitive generative organs for pregnancy and childbirth. It will save any mother much pain and suffering. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles.
